WORK EXPERIENCE

2014–2020: Coordinator EACII and full-time senior lecturer in the Department of History, Religion and Philosophy. I worked on the strategic plan for the institute and also taught undergraduate, graduate and post-graduate courses on Research Methodology, Pentateuchal Studies, New Testament Theology, African Worldview as well as Religion and Development.

2011–2013: Appointed a senior lecturer in Philosophy and Religious Studies at Jaramogi Oginga Odinga University of Science and Technology. I taught courses on Critical Thinking, Philosophy of Religion, Religion and Science, African Religion and Worldview, Religion, Education and Development, African Culture, Bible and Culture and Technology Transfer in Africa. I also work as a visiting lecturer, in the following Graduate and Postgraduate Courses: Politics, Human Security and Development, Political Philosophy, Development Management, and Development Issues in Africa, at Jomo Kenyatta University of Agriculture and Technology. Moreover, I coordinate internship research on the element of successful technology transfer and prospects of green energy in developing world, in conjunction with Delft University of Technology – The Netherlands. I supervise the interns to make a social analysis of the situation on the ground and explore the reasons why many people do not embrace technology and green energy in particular.

2010: Worked as Deputy Director, Kitui Campus, Kenyatta University – Duties entailed helping the Campus Director on all matters pertaining to academic, financial and day-to-day running of the campus.

2009–2011: Worked as lecturer in philosophy and Religious Studies at Kenyatta University; and as a visiting lecturer on Political Theory and Governance in Africa at the Institute of Social Ministry in Mission (ISMM) in Tangaza University College.
